

LONG CAREER
IN POLITICSDavid B. Hill of New York
Died Today

HAD BEEN ILL TWO WEEKS

He Was One of the Best Known Democratic Politicians of the Country and Had Held Many Offices, Including Governor of New York.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Ex-United States Senator David B. Hill, one of the best-known Democratic politicians in the country and a former governor of New York, died today at his home, "Wolfert's Roost," after a two weeks' illness with a cold. The end came at 3:45 this morning, a general collapse of the system coming after the weakening by the cold.

David Bennett Hill was 67 years of age, having been born on August 29, 1843, Havana, N. Y., was his native place, and his parents were Caleb and Eunice (Durfee) Hill. After being educated at the public schools and Havana academy, he was admitted to the bar in 1864 and soon thereafter began his political career. He was a delegate to state Democratic conventions from 1868 to 1880 and was twice chairman. Five times he was elected a delegate to the national convention of his party, and in the 1900 convention, he seconded the nomination of William J. Bryan for the presidency.

In office holding, he had been a member of the New York assembly in 1871-2, city attorney of Elmira in 1865, alderman in 1860 and 1881, and mayor of the same city. He was elected lieutenant-governor in 1882, and was governor of New York from 1885 to 1891. The latter year he was elected United States senator and served six years. In 1892, Mr. Hill was a prominent candidate for president of the United States. Among other offices, he had been president of the New York Bar association.

ELY-ELY GODDARD DEAD.
Formerly Well Known in Vermont, Died
Died in New York.

New York, Oct. 20.—Col. Ely-ELY Goddard, for several years a member of the legislature in Vermont, a member of Gov. Farham's staff and a colonel in the Vermont state militia, died in the New York hospital yesterday. He was 52 years old.

WELLMAN TELLS
CAUSE OF FAILUREDirect Cause Was Exhaustion of the Supply of Gasoline—He Has a Bruised Hand.

New York, Oct. 20.—Walter Wellman and his five companions were landed here yesterday afternoon by the steamship "Trent," which picked them up at sea after they had abandoned their dirigible balloon, "America," and failed in the first attempt ever made to cross the Atlantic through the air. A bruised right hand which Wellman carried in a sling, was the only physical injury that resulted from their long voyage of approximately 900 miles, and a rescue the like of which is unknown to all history.

None of the aeronauts expressed regret for the loss of the "America." They agreed that it had served its purpose and taught its lesson. All stand ready to renew the attempt as soon as Wellman and his engineers find a way to conquer the difficulties that brought their first trip to its thrilling end Tuesday morning, 400 miles southeast of Sandy Hook.

Standing on the deck of the Trent, clad in the same suit of khaki he wore when he and his crew launched the "America" last Saturday at Atlantic City, Wellman made the statement:

"We thought we could not get along without the equilibrator. Now we find we could get along with it. Our plans for the future are indefinite until we find something that will do what we thought the equilibrator would do."

The "equilibrator" to which Wellman attributes the failure of his voyage was the series of tanks containing gasoline which floats in the water attached to the airship by a long rope. Its purpose in addition to storing gasoline and serving as a wireless "ground" was to keep the balloon steady, compensating for the expansion and contraction of the gas due to changes in temperature which would have made the "America" rise or sink erratically. The "America's" experience proved that this floating tank, jerking at the delicately poised airship, made it impossible to steer or make headway in the desired direction and severely weakened the structure. To find another means of compensating for this unavoidable change in the volume of gas is the problem to which Wellman and his engineer, Melvin Vaniman, will now devote their attention.

The direct cause for abandoning the "America" was the exhaustion of the supply of gasoline, which had to be thrown out to save the ship until, when the crew abandoned the balloon, only enough was left to last about twenty-four hours.

PRESIDENT TART AT HOME.

Returned to Washington This Morning and Went to White House.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—President Tart arrived at 7 o'clock this morning and went directly to the White House.

RACES POSTPONED.

Rain Hindered the Great Event, Which Is for $5,000 a Side.

New York, Oct. 20.—Rain today forced the postponement of the Jack Johnson-Barney Oldfield automobile race, for $5,000 a side, at Sheephead bay.

AUTO TIRES STOLEN.

Three Taken from Private Garage in Burlington.

Burlington, Oct. 20.—Sheriff Allen is closely scrutinizing big automobiles these days. The sheriff is looking for three new tires that were stolen Monday night from the private garage owned by George H. Allen on the Allen estate, south of the city.

The tires were in a portion of the garage which was not locked. There were two 4 1/2 by 30 inch tires and one 5 by 30 inch tire. One of the tires was of foreign make, while the other two were of American design.

Where the tires are a mystery. Besides taking the new tires, the burglars broke open the lockers and took about ten new inner tubes. It is thought that the robbery must have occurred about ten o'clock Monday night. The tires were not missed until Tuesday morning, when the sheriff was notified.

According to the story of the robbery, someone on the estate heard a dog bark late Monday night and thought they heard a wagon driving through the woods near the garage. As the roads through the estate are open to the public, no suspicion was aroused by this occurrence.

The garage, which was erected this summer, stands some distance from the house and it would have been an easy matter to drive to the building with a light wagon after dark without attracting unusual attention.

It is not thought that the tires could be disposed of here as the sheriff has the numbers and the tires can be detected if used on an automobile. Sheriff Allen visited the Allen estate yesterday and looked the ground over about the garage. No trace of the burglars could be obtained.

FOUR BREAKS IN VERGENNES.

Series of Depredations Were Committed
There Yesterday Morning.

Vergennes, Oct. 20.—Yesterday morning between three and four o'clock, the meat market and grocery store of Charles E. Stebbins, the grocery store of Juba Daniels, the hardware store of J. A. Harrington and the lunch room of Fred Labou were broken into.

At the Daniels store an entrance was made at the back by breaking the glass in the door and unbolted it. At Harrington's the plate glass in the front door was broken with a stone which was found inside on the floor. At the lunch room, the glass was broken in the front door by a stone, which was found on the floor. At Stebbins' the glass in a front window was broken. Mr. Daniels reports a loss of about $3 in change from the money drawer and at Stebbins' a collection of old coins was the only thing missed. So far as known nothing was taken at Harrington's or Labou's. At the latter place, there was about $17 in a box in the cigar case, evidently overlooked by the thieves.

HORSE AND RIG STOLEN.

Supposed Traveling Salesman Hired
Outfit at Fair Haven.

Rutland, Oct. 20.—A horse and wagon belonging to W. H. Streeter of Fair Haven was evidently stolen Tuesday morning, when a stranger hired the rig and failed to return. The man, who claimed to be a traveling salesman, was about five feet ten inches tall, dark complexion, and slim. He claimed he wanted to go to Poultney and intended to return the next morning, but late last night he had failed to put in an appearance. The horse was a bay mare of the French type, with a heavy mane and tail and a cut under the forelock of the front foot, on which he wore a little lame. The wagon was a Concord.

CAVE UP HIS LIFE
IN FUTILE ATTEMPTJoseph Langley Went to Aid of Adelbert Daly, Who Had Already Been Killed by Electricity.

Canton, Mass., Oct. 20.—Joseph Langley of Boston lost his life while trying to rescue his companion, Adelbert Daly of Arlington, from a tangle of live wires which caused Daly's death, in this town yesterday. Both men were telephone linemen.

While working on the top of a forty-foot pole carrying telephone, telegraph and electric light wires, Daly became entangled in the live light wires. Langley, seeing his predicament, climbed the pole, but the moment he touched the wires he received such a powerful shock that he dropped to the ground, breaking his neck.

Daly is believed to have been killed by the first shock. He was 50 years old and leaves a wife and several children. Langley was 40 years old and unmarried.

ODDS IN FAVOR OF ATHLETICS.

Large Crowd Gathered at Gates, but There is Little Cub Money.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Despite a cold drizzle and the temperature in the fifties, a great crowd was slowing about the gates of the Cubs' park this morning. The day was uncertain from the start to the finish. The Athletics are now one to two favorites here and there is little Cub money.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Barre lodge, No. 138, New England Order of Protection, will observe the 23rd anniversary of the founding of the order at exercises to be held in the Howland hall Thursday evening, October 20.

The exercises will consist of a short program, with addresses by two prominent members of the supreme lodge, after which dancing will be indulged in till midnight.

Wednesday and Thursday arrivals at the City Hotel were as follows: A. Cohen, A. Weisman, Boston; G. F. Anderson, Portland, Me.; J. A. Rogers, St. Albans; O. B. Chrisman, Hahawak, N. Y.; John Morris, Wells River; F. W. Denison, St. Albans; G. Rust, Springfield, Mass.; S. S. Spear, Boston; J. C. McIntosh, Manchester, N. H.; W. E. Birdsell, J. H. LaCrosse, A. M. Bailey, Boston; C. R. Armstrong, Buffalo, N. Y.; F. L. Floyd, New York City; five members of McEnelly's orchestra; J. R. Revel, Burlington; M. S. Kiernan, C. W. Chadburn, Boston; H. H. Lowe, Springfield; L. E. Douglass, Burlington; W. G. McIntyre, Boston.

WHOLE PLANT
IS WIPED OUTOf Fonda Lime Kiln Business at Swanton Junction

MADE GREAT SPECTACLE

The Flames Broke Out at 11 Last Night and Were Fanned by South Wind
Till All the Manufacturing
Plant Was Down.

St. Albans, Oct. 20.—The lime kiln plant at Swanton Junction, owned by the W. B. Fonda company of this city, was destroyed by fire late last night at a heavy loss, the exact amount of which has not been ascertained yet. It was supposed that the fire started from a spark which flew from a kiln that had just been started, having been discovered at 11 o'clock by a workman who had just started work.

Fanned by a south wind the flames swept through the entire plant, destroying also hundreds of cords of wood that were stored there. The fire made a great spectacle, being seen for miles around. All sheds and the restles, etc., which formed the manufacturing end of the business were burned, but the building in the quarries was not burned.

FIRE LOSS WAS $2,500.

Barn and Shop Near West Rutland Destroyed.

Rutland, Oct. 20.—A large barn and the old shop at the Rutland Florence Marble company's works at Waipole Hollow near West Rutland were destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, burning about 40 tons of hay and some marble supplies.

The men were placing a new roof on the horse barn when a kettle of tar ignited. An attempt was made to get the kettle out of the barn and James McDevitt was slightly burned. The fire spread quickly and in a short time the building was in ruins. The horses were out of the barn at the time. The loss is estimated at about $2,500.

DEBT WIPED OUT.

Barre Golf Club Heard Pleasant News
at Annual Meeting.

Their organization free from debt was the pleasing information which the members of the Barre Golf club heard at their annual meeting held in the city room last evening, pleasing information, indeed, because it was the first time since the clubhouse was built eight years ago that it could be said. The note on the balance of the house has been wiped out during the year, and there is a slight balance on hand. They start the next year afloat. The treasurer, Miss Penelope Gail, reported that the total receipts for the year were $608.36, with $17.50 still to be collected. The treasury now contains $55.62.

In honor of the payment of the debt on the clubhouse, it is proposed to have a "note burning" at some near date, when the cups and prizes for the year are presented to the winners. The arrangements for this event will be made soon.

There is now a total of 102 members, including active and associate members, the number taken in during the past summer being twenty.

At the election of officers, John Reid was re-elected vice president, L. R. Hutchinson was chosen secretary and Miss Gail was re-elected treasurer. They, with David Stuart, Alex. Milne and Robert Clark, who were chosen last evening, will serve as the executive committee. The match committee was elected as follows: James Mackay, Donald W. Smith and John Daniels.

There was a large attendance of the holders at the meeting last night. The holding of it at the close of the playing season is an innovation, following plan laid at the last previous annual meeting. Heretofore, the annual meeting has been held in the winter, or just prior to the opening of the season.

VT. BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING.

Dr. A. L. Cooper of Randolph Re-elected President.

The Vermont Bible society held its 98th annual meeting in Montpelier yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Rev. Dr. A. L. Cooper of Randolph presiding. The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed that the society was in a prosperous condition.

The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Dr. A. L. Cooper of Randolph; vice presidents, Rev. W. A. Davison of Burlington, Rev. W. S. Wallace of South Ryegate; recording secretary, Rev. W. S. Smithers of Montpelier; treasurer, Deacon H. A. Slayton of Morrisville; auditor, Henry Waite of Morrisville; directors, Deacon D. A. Camp of Newport, Dr. O. G. Stickney of Barre, H. Demeritt, Waterbury, W. W. Nichols of Rutland, Rev. J. W. Burdin of Newport Center, Rev. E. A. Bishop of Montpelier, Rev. J. Sargent of Northfield, Rev. R. F. Love of St. Albans, C. C. Holmes of Montpelier, George Cochran of Ryegate, S. P. Smith of Burlington, Rev. Brownell of West Barnet.

At the meeting of the directors, Rev. W. S. Wallace of South Ryegate was elected a delegate to accompany Rev. L. C. Sherburne, the agent, to the federal meeting of the New England and New York City Bible societies, to be held next year. Mr. Sherburne was chosen corresponding secretary of the board.

GETS LARGE GRANITE CONTRACT.

Rockport Co. to Furnish 150,000 Tons of Split Stone.

Glocester, Mass., Oct. 20.—The Rockport Granite company which is already supplying stone for the Cape Cod canal, has secured the contract for furnishing split stone for the big Commonwealth pier at South Boston. Holbrook, Cabot & Rollins are the contractors. The contract is for 150,000 tons.

TWO ARREST MADE.

They Are Suspected of Knowing About Recent Robberies.

Burlington, Oct. 20.—Sheriff Allen last night arrested two men who are suspected of knowing something of the recent burglaries in Middlebury and Vergennes and lodged them in the jail here. The arrest was made near Shelburne, as the pair were walking toward Burlington. They gave the names of Peter Ritchie and Charles Fumaro.

The men took the mail train at Ferrisburgh yesterday afternoon. They paid their fare to Shelburne and in doing so displayed a large amount of loose silver. This attracted the attention of a traveling man on the train and when he reached Burlington he notified the sheriff.

In the meantime the men had left the train at Shelburne. When the sheriff learned that the men were aboard the train and had left at Shelburne, he telephoned to the latter place and was informed that the two men were walking toward Burlington.

Sheriff Allen immediately set out in his auto and came across the two men walking toward Burlington. They were both young fellows and wore good overcoats. The sheriff questioned the two men and they told several conflicting stories as to having been in several towns recently. They were taken into custody and brought to Burlington.

While riding toward the city, the sheriff heard something fall on the running board of his auto and upon stopping found several cartridges. One of the men was then searched and found to have a revolver concealed in his clothes. The sheriff was unable to say whether the man was attempting to draw the gun or merely trying to dispose of the cartridges already in the gun.

When searched at the jail a large amount of silver was found upon one of the prisoners. They also had a collection of various articles, including a razor, soap, etc., and a large quantity of matches.

The loose change amounted in all to nearly $100 and the reason why they had left the train at Shelburne they said they did not want to buy further because they had no money to buy a lunch. Later the silver was found.

Owing to the inability of the pair to give anything like a satisfactory account of themselves, the sheriff placed them behind the bars until he could communicate with the authorities at Middlebury and Vergennes. In both of these places burglaries have been numerous during the past three nights.

DEMOCRATS TELL
OF EXPENDITURESTreasurer Gleason of Vermont State
Committee Announces That Total
Expenditures Were $198.15,
Leaving Balance of $40.33.

Treasurer A. H. Gleason of the Democratic state committee has sent out from St. Johnsbury a statement covering the expense account of the committee during the recent campaign in Vermont, showing the expenditures to have been as follows:

Stenographic and clerk hire $64.00
Rent of typewriter 7.00
Typewriter ribbons 2.25
Printing and stationery 43.00
Subscriptions and newspaper 47.00
Telephone, telegraph and express 13.85
Mileage 8.20
Expense at office of M. G. Leary, sec., stenographic services, stamps, telephone, etc. 13.05
Balance on hand 40.33
$238.48

Treasurer Gleason also has issued a "true list" of all the sums collected by the treasurer of state committee, Democratic, for state campaign, 1910. It shows that M. A. Brown, of H. H. Parkhurst were the largest givers, having contributed $25 each. The following gave $10 each: O. C. Sawyer, Frank M. Bryan, A. H. Gleason, E. May, George Asmell, H. B. Howe, W. H. Eastman, J. H. Ryan, J. E. Burke of Rutland, Alex. Cochran.

The 38 contributors were as follows: T. J. Byrne, A. J. Libby, G. A. Tilden, H. J. Volohn, William W. Welch, G. H. Parkhurst, Leland Munson of Manchester, John W. Watson of Montpelier, Seneca Haselton of Burlington, George M. Powers of Burlington. The superior court judges were re-elected as follows: Willard W. Miles of Barton, Eleazer L. Waterman of Brattleboro, Alfred A. Hall of St. Albans, William H. Taylor of Hardwick, Zed of Stantion of Roxbury and Fred M. Butler of Rutland.

Mason S. Stone was re-elected state superintendent of education, C. H. Fern as sergeant-at-arms and Lee S. Tilton of St. Albans as adjutant and inspector general and quartermaster-general.

INJURED DOING WELL.

Both Patients at City Hospital Are Likely to Recover.

Joseph Tacy, who was brought to the City hospital from Graniteville yesterday afternoon, suffering with several broken ribs, a fractured collar-bone, and severe wounds about the head, underwent an operation last night, and this morning his condition is much improved as a result. Tacy withstood the operation well, although to-day he is in a semi-conscious condition. Considering the serious nature of his injuries, however, this is not an unfavorable symptom.

The accident occurred at the Miles quarry yesterday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock. Tacy was assisting about the derrick, when a large rope was suddenly snapped in two, throwing him over a look nearly ten feet in depth. Hooker's ambulance was brought from this city, and the injured man was rushed to the hospital. Examination of his injuries revealed a fractured collar-bone, three broken ribs on the left side, the wounds about the scalp, and a gash over one eye. Tacy is 30 years old.

The condition of John Parmeter, who was taken to the City hospital yesterday after sustaining severe injuries at the river bed excavation, is as comfortable as could be expected. He has retained consciousness ever since the accident occurred, and unless some unforeseen complications set in, he will recover. While conversing with the matron of the hospital yesterday, it developed that the injured man's name is Parmeter, instead of Parker, as was reported yesterday. Mr. Parmeter said that the men with whom he worked had called him "Parker," and that he was too weak to explain the mistake until some time after the accident.

HOUSE KILLS
QUEER BILLLimiting Term of Treasurers in Towns to Two Years

IT IS CALLED "SPITE" BILL

Senate Passed Bill Relating to Right of a Husband to Waive Provisions of a
Wife's Will—Barre Charter Bill
Goes to Third Reading.

Half hour sessions in both branches of the legislature were all that were required this morning to clean up the business, and there was no hesitancy about adjourning, for there was plenty of work for the committees to do.

In the House came the first killing of the session, when the bill introduced by Mr. Hunt of New Haven, providing that town treasurer shall not hold office for more than two years in succession, was refused a third reading. It is generally considered that this was one of those spite bills that creep in every session.

Five bills were introduced in the House, as follows:—

By Mr. Bronson of Hardwick, to repeal No. 119 of the acts of 1908, relating to the pasteurizing of milk.

By Mr. Boyce of Waterbury, an act to incorporate the Waterbury Savings Bank and Trust company.

By Mr. Martin of Brookline, in amendment of P. S. sections 185 and 248, relating to certificates of election. Provides that representatives-elect shall, upon receiving certificates of election, forthwith forward same to the secretary of state.

By Mr. Mann of St. Albans City, an act to promote the poultry interests of Vermont. Appropriates $500 annually for the Vermont State Poultry association.

By Mr. Pittbridge of Leicester, to amend subdivision 8 of section 210 of the P. S., relating to exemptions from taxation. Deposits in all savings banks and trust companies without the state, and in all banks other than savings banks and trust companies, within or without the state, and the excess over one thousand dollars in any one savings bank or trust company within this state, to be set in the list on April 1.

Mr. Ward of Danville worked in a petition for a state-wide prohibitory law and a joint resolution for the election of a trustee of the U. V. M. and State Agricultural college, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George Aitken, was adopted.

Barre Bill Advances.

In the Senate, the bill amending Barre's charter was ordered to a third reading. This is the bill making a change in the manner of conducting freeman's meetings.

The bill relating to the right of a husband to waive the provisions of a wife's will was passed, and now the husband is placed on an equality with the wife in this respect, as far as the Senate is concerned.

Two bills were introduced in the Senate, one amending the law relating to service in libels for divorce, making evidence that a libelee has lived without the state for five years or has had personal notice in such cases; the other to incorporate the Vergennes Light and Power company.

Senator Tappan of Orleans introduced a joint resolution to permit the committee on house of correction to visit that institution, and Senator Powell extended an invitation to the Senate to attend the corner stone exercises of his new hotel.

Joint Session Election.

A joint assembly was held this afternoon for election of certain state officers. All the judges of the supreme court were re-elected as follows: Chief Justice, John W. Howell of Randolph; Justices, Leland Munson of Manchester, John W. Watson of Montpelier, Seneca Haselton of Burlington, George M. Powers of Burlington. The superior court judges were re-elected as follows: Willard W. Miles of Barton, Eleazer L. Waterman of Brattleboro, Alfred A. Hall of St. Albans, William H. Taylor of Hardwick, Zed of Stantion of Roxbury and Fred M. Butler of Rutland.

Mason S. Stone was re-elected state superintendent of education, C. H. Fern as sergeant-at-arms and Lee S. Tilton of St. Albans as adjutant and inspector general and quartermaster-general.

MANY EVENTS

Arranged for Ladies' Week at Montpelier
Next Week.

The complete program for ladies' week at Montpelier next week was announced at 10 o'clock this morning. The program was as follows:—

Monday evening, address by Miss Boardman of Washington, D. C., on the Red Cross movement.

Tuesday morning, 13th annual meeting of the Vermont society, Colonial Dames, Kellogg-Hubbard library.

Tuesday evening, reception at State House by Gov. and Mrs. Mead and former governors and their wives.

Wednesday morning, annual meeting of the D. A. R. Kellogg-Hubbard library.

Wednesday afternoon, from 3 to 5, reception at the Pavilion hotel by Mrs. Mead and Mrs. Clark.

Thursday evening, reception by Daughters of 1812.

Thursday evening, governor's ball at city hall.

NO CHANGE LIKELY
IN PRICE OF MILKBarre Producers Do Not Find Unanimity
Among the Retailers, And So the Movement Will Be Abandoned
For This Year.

The movement among the milk producers of Barre to ask a raise of half a cent per quart, received somewhat of a setback at their meeting held in Unity temple, South Barre, yesterday afternoon, and it is probable that the matter will be given up for the present year.

There are several reasons back of this situation, according to leaders among the producers, and among them could be named the lack of unanimity among the retailers about raising their price. It is said that two at least of the retailers are averse to charging seven cents per quart to the consumers, and their position has a direct influence on the producers who furnish milk to them.

Another reason advanced for the proposed abandonment of the movement by the producers was the lateness of the start, some believing that anything of this nature affecting so many people needs more time. In view of that feeling and because of the balking of some retailers it is probable that the milk price will remain the same as it has been in Barre for the present year.

There was a large attendance at the producers' meeting yesterday afternoon and the matter was thoroughly discussed. When adjournment was taken, no set time for another meeting was named, nor was the president authorized to call another meeting.

FOSTER—MOORCROFT.

Very Pretty Autumn Wedding at the Bride's Home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Moorcroft of South Main street, was the scene of a pretty wedding last night, when their daughter, Artelle, was united in marriage to Robert William Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster of Montpelier. Rev. E. C. Downey, pastor of the Universalist church, performed the ceremony, the double ring service being witnessed by Montpelier, Mrs. A. L. A. Morris poured the coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Foster were the recipients of many presents as beautiful as they were varied. Silverware, cut glass, china and linen were included in the list. They left in an automobile for a brief wedding trip, after which they will reside at 131 South Main street. They will be at home after December 1.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nye, Charles Nye and Miss Blanche Moorcroft of North Montpelier; A. G. Bradshaw and George Bradshaw of Chelsea; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster, Carroll Foster, Miss S. Belle Martin, and Misses Edith and Annie Wheelock. No cards were issued.

RESPONDENT MISSING.

City Court Hears That He Has Departed for New Hampshire.

Joseph Rogers was arrested last night by officer Gamble on a mittimus issued by Judge Scott. Rogers pleaded guilty in city court a week ago to a subsequent offense of intoxication and was allowed to go on C. A. Churchill's agreeing to pay his fine if he would go to work for him. Rogers failed to show up to work, and yesterday Mr. Churchill took the matter to the court in a mittimus for him. This morning Rogers was taken sick in his cell in the police station and the city physician was called to attend him. His condition was not found to be serious and he will be taken to the county jail to serve out a 90 days sentence.

Aron Covey was arrested last night by officer Dineen for intoxication. Covey pleaded guilty to a first offense and was fined $5, with costs of $6.50. At his request he was allowed to sign the pledge for six months.

Charles Sprethuis, who pleaded guilty to the charge of breach of the peace two weeks ago and whose case was continued until this morning for sentence, failed to appear before the court. The officers notified the court that they understood he had left town and as near as they could learn had gone to New Hampshire.

GIRLS GETS DAMAGES.

She Had Sued for Injuries Sustained in Trouble at Warren.

Washington county court the jury last night brought in a verdict for Alice V. Austin of Warren to recover $500 and costs in her suit for damages against Albert Tucker and Mrs. Laura Stoddard. The jury was out four hours.

The plaintiff's attorney, Richard A. Hoar, in arguing the case, said that the defendants had taken the law into their own hands and used force on the plaintiff, who was trying to prevent their digging a water pipe ditch across the land of the plaintiff's mother. He said that the plaintiff was entitled to $3,500 for injuries.

JUSTICE METED OUT.

Man Who Caused Another's Downfall
Got Sentence in Rutland.

Rutland, Oct. 20.—Because he had furnished George Rogers, who had taken a pledge not to take intoxicating liquor, causing him to go to jail for 200 days and his large family to go onto the town, City Judge Swinnerton today sent Arthur Batchelder of this city to jail for a year with an alternative of $500 fine.

GOVERNMENT WEEK

Gov. Mead Issued a Proclamation
Today Prohibiting it

By the Act Hunting of Any Kind of Game Is Prohibited from October
24 to October 31, with the Usual Penalties.

Governor Mead today issued a proclamation forbidding the hunting of any kind of game in Vermont from and including October 24 to October 31, which period includes the open season of one week for hunting deer. This proclamation was issued by virtue of the authority vested in the executive by an act of the last legislature, giving him the right in case of drought, when the discharge of fire-arms might cause forest fires.

The same law declares that the governor shall, in that case, issue a proclamation forbidding the hunting of any kind of game in Vermont from and including October 24 to October 31, which period includes the open season of one week for hunting deer. This proclamation was issued by virtue of the authority vested in the executive by an act of the last legislature, giving him the right in case of drought, when the discharge of fire-arms might cause forest fires.

The same law declares that the governor shall, in that case, issue a proclamation forbidding the hunting of any kind of game in Vermont from and including October 24 to October 31, which period includes the open season of one week for hunting deer. This proclamation was issued by virtue of the authority vested in the executive by an act of the last legislature, giving him the right in case of drought, when the discharge of fire-arms might cause forest fires.